“ It brings me joy to see Allen through the eyes of those who know him now.

I new Allen in high school. We were buddies and got in some trouble together. He was my next door neighbor when I was born and he looked after me a bit when I was new to high school.

Later we crossed paths in less than happy circumstances, but we were comforted by our history.

Allen always had a good heart and I'm looking forward to seeing him again when I pass from this earthly existence!

You Go Allen! I'll see you when I get there brother!

“ My friend Allen will be missed by my family and especially his little Maggie...Allen and I have been friends for a very long time. We shared a lot of good times together, my family and our furry family. Rest in peace Allen, knowing that Maggie is well cared for...She misses you and so do we. I know that you are dancing on streets of gold now and not sick anymore and you are with Jesus and I find peace in that...I have good memories of Liver and onion dinners at our favorite place..the Ranch House...Allen you never had much to say but I did most of the talking, so there ya go.....Allen would always laugh with me but shaking his head at the same time. We shared quiet moments and worshiped together...Allen you were a terrible singer...But what an awesome man of God. We will see you soon hopefully not to soon, I have to take care of Maggie. I'm a little angry,,,GOD took you to soon.....Rest in Peace my friend....Rest in Peace.....

Your life testimony is a amazing journey that helped so many in there recovery and strengthen there walk with Christ.

Thank you for your kind heart and words that helped me so many times when I was struggling with the Hugh heart ache of missing my wife and the rest of my family....

I will never forget our last words together at the hospital....

You seemed to again know what was heavy on my heart with out me saying a word to you about any of it.....

This time I wanted to be there for you but as usual you ministered to me and said exactly what my mind and heart needed to hear.. You always seemed to know what was on my heart....
