Brad, along with Sharon Starmer, purchased Showcase Real Estate in 2001. The business was recently sold to Intero Showcase in 2018, freeing up his time to be semi-retired, but still working as an agent and no longer a boss. Less stress was the goal as he reached retirement age.

Brad's real estate career expanded over 40 years. Throughout his career, he earned numerous awards, achievements, and accolades. He was well respected by his associates and the community. Brad was truly loved as the "Hard-Working Nice Guy".
