“ I remember the day I met Chelsea I was running around looking for the homeless to hand out blankets I had a arm full of blankets and she looked at me with a smile on her face and said aren't you the mayor of the homeless .. I smiled and said yes I am . She was so excited to finally met me . She made me feel so good that day .I'd never met this young lady before .we went along from camp to camp and handed out blankets we talked of the things she wanted to do later in life .we talked as if we had known each other for along time . When I asked her about her family she started crying she said I just want them to know I love them and I'm sorry I didn't ask her why she was sorry but I already knew why . She asked me if I could help her I said of course I can I'm your mayor Chelsea and I'll do whatever I can .she wanted to get clean so I told her where to go . She smiled and said you're a dream to some homeless I know of some of the things you've done and I'm glad I got a chance to help you and the homeless out today and I thank you for you .. she was a beautiful child with so many dreams ... I want her family to know she wanted to be better for her self and for you.. her dreams I will carry with me always and that smile on that beautiful childs face I'll hold dear in my heart I'm so sorry for your loss . I want her sister to know I never gave up looking for her and the pain in my heart will always be with me. The good lord had taken her home to dance upon the stars . She'll always be my shining star .so at night when the stars shine so bright she's one of them looking down on us may the good lord be with you all ..again I'm so sorry from" the mayor of the homeless " raelynn "

Thank you raelynn. I hope my sister knew she never had to be sorry. We loved her no matter what. And we kno she loved us. She was so afraid to let us down. She never wanted us to be upset And or mad at her. !! I love you my angel sister.

Seairra Lewis - December 24, 2017 at 11:27 AM

Raelynn I kno you neve gave up looking for her and I thank u. I would like for you to share with me what she did with u about her future and what not.

Seaira Lewis - December 24, 2017 at 07:34 PM

Thank you for being a friend to her. I knew her when she was a young girl. Watched her grow into a teenager and then we sorta lost contact. We did not have regular contact, but I would cross her path as she became an adult. I always saw her as the sweet, loving, innocent young girl I knew. This is the Chelsey I will remember and keep close in my heart. She will hold a piece of my heart forever until we meet again in Heaven. She always gave the best hugs and I am waiting for my next hug from her when I see her again in Heaven
