

Colin Joseph Drewick

May 8, 1968 - May 12, 2014

Colin J. Drewick, 46, passed away much too early on Monday, May 12, 2014, of natural causes.

Colin has been a resident of Roseville, CA, where he has been a IT tech with Apple Computer, and a long time professional in the electronic industry.

Colin is the son of George and Kathleen Drewick, also of Roseville. And he leaves behind his two children, Kyle and Cheyenne., along with his companion and partner, April.

Colin was a outdoors enthusiast, who loved boating and camping with family and friends.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life/ Potluck Picnic

MAY 31. 12:00 PM (PT)

Madera Park
8046 Wonder St
Citrus Heights, CA 95610

Tribute Wall

GE

“ Dear Uncle George and Aunt Kathy,
Eric and I were so sorry to hear about Colin. When we told Beth she was particularly saddened since she remembered him so well from the family reunion, Colin and his cool boat on the lake! While reading all the comments about him it's easy to learn he was a nice man who knew how to be a good friend to people, a quality that endeared him to so many.
Our hearts go out to you both, his partner April and his children, Kyle and Cheyene. I can particularly relate to them and what they are going through as my father also went to work one day and never came home. Please let them know we think of them often and our hearts are with them.
We love you both and will keep you in our prayers.
Eric, Gail, Beth and CJ Erickson

Gail Erickson - May 28, 2014 at 03:55 PM

Rebecca
Wilde

“ Rebecca Wilde lit a candle in memory of Colin
Joseph Drewick

Rebecca Wilde - May 27, 2014 at 12:12 PM

Rebecca
Wilde

“ To the Family of Colin,

I am so very sorry for your loss. Colin was a very compassionate man that cared for people. He always had funny stories and carried his heart on his shoulder. I had the opportunity to meet Colin in 2006 when he first started with Apple. I called him Bruno, for he had a bruise on his forehead. He told me a funny story of how he got hurt, I almost died laughing. Colin, had many funny stories, but his kids was his Love of Life! He told me many times about taking them to outing and to their games. Colin will be missed greatly by our Apple family and again I am so very sorry for your loss.

Rebecca Wilde - May 27, 2014 at 12:11 PM

LC

“ Colin,

You were on the very first team I managed at Apple almost 6 years ago! Your Apple anniversary lands on my birthday so it was always easy to remember :) We shared stories about our family and especially our kids! You were a very proud father that admired and loved his kids so much! You have been an inspiration to so many here at Apple! Your contagious smile, laugh and jokes can be heard throughout the call center. I always stopped by your dept and you'd give me a big hug! My deepest sympathy goes out to Colin's friends, family and children! Colin will definitely be missed and always remembered...

Lisa Carrion - May 25, 2014 at 01:09 PM

ED

“ I had the pleasure to know Colin at work and work with him. He was always a pleasure to work and talk to. You will be missed Colin. My condolences to his family.

Ed

Ed - May 21, 2014 at 05:15 PM

DF

“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Colin really well, however we spoke regularly in the morning and occasionally other parts of the workday. What was apparent was his positivity and infectious smile - I don't recall ever seeing him looking anything other than upbeat. My condolences to his family, he will be missed.

David Freeman - May 18, 2014 at 12:39 PM

 April Swalley

“ April Swalley lit a candle in memory of Colin Joseph Drewick

April Swalley - May 16, 2014 at 11:33 AM

BL

“ Dear Uncle George, Aunt Kathy, Kyle, Cheyene and family. No words will even come close to lessening your grief in the loss of Colin. Do know that we hold you close to our heart. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. As time goes by and your pain subsides a tiny bit , more and more memories of your times together will surface for you. Through those memories Colin will live on forever. Much Love and our deepest sympathy! Brian & Judy Lally

Brian & Judy Lally - May 16, 2014 at 10:53 AM

JL

“ Dear Uncle George and Aunt Kathy and Family : No words can express how sorry we are to hear of Collins death. Nothing we would say will lessen the grief and pain of loosing your son. Thru your memories and his children he will live on for ever! We hold you close in our hearts . Our deepest sympathy to you, to his children and to the family. Much Love, Brian & Judy Lally

Judy Lally - May 15, 2014 at 05:50 PM

Jl

“ Still absorbing the news, my thoughts and prayers are with with your family Colin. You were with me as I started my Apple career over 6 yrs ago, training till 12:30am to start, from there to Rancho, then back to Elk Grove. It seemed we couldn't shake each other as we always need up on the same team. You were truly someone who loved life, and wanted to live it to its fullest. Always willing to talk to ANYONE, and always wearing a smile. I wish I could attend your memorial, but I'm out of state now. I'll always remember that smile and your laugh! R.I.P. COLIN! I'm glad I had the opportunity to meet ya man! You will be missed.

James Taylor II - May 15, 2014 at 04:46 PM

MA

“ Collin Ill miss you, you talked a lot of smack, told way to many jokes, Mr. story teller- one for every situation you can think of, always a smile and some latter where ever you were. I'll miss all of that.

Maria - May 15, 2014 at 12:02 PM

“ wow, it is really hard to believe that he is gone, I started at Apple 3 years ago and I met Collin in my second year, he greeted me every morning with a smile and a big hug, he was always so positive regardless of the time of day, I will always remember him for his kindness and crazy laugh.. my prayers are with the family

Kariima Sanders - May 15, 2014 at 09:37 AM

VT

“ Colin was such a sweetheart. I went to school with him and he was the life of the party, but he was always a good friend. He would always be there for someone if they just needed a shoulder to cry on. He will be missed very much. Until we see you again.

Veronica Taylor - May 15, 2014 at 12:36 AM

SL

“ colin was the life of the party, he always had the jokes and stories to make everyone laugh.. i can't count how many times he would make a joke too make someone laugh so much they peed their pants. you will be missed, and so will your cooking!! R.I.P Colin, i will always carry you in my heart.

Sandra Alethia Lynne - May 14, 2014 at 08:44 PM

AH

“Wow... I still can't believe the news Colin. I've worked with you since the beginning of our Apple careers and what can I say... you knew how to make people smile. The one thing that always stuck out to me about Colin is the love that he had for his kids. I have never known a man that loved his kids so much and he talked about them all the time. Such a proud man and a proud father. Oh, and of course BBQ. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family Colin. It was a pleasure to work with you over the years and share stories over drinks after work and even sample the BBQ that you would bring in. Your presence will be missed here at the office.

"What does Old McDonald call his phone? The E-I-E-I Phone."

Anthony Hernandez - May 14, 2014 at 07:04 PM

MB

“My most sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Colin. He always had a big smile and always had something nice to say. This guy never missed an opportunity to say hi to someone and ask them how their day was going. I'll surely miss the quick banter we shared when we saw each other in the halls at work.

Mike Beckwith - May 14, 2014 at 04:51 PM

CC

“ Colin always had a smile on his face and was a true free spirit.

I had the opportunity to work with him for almost 5 years here at Apple and I will always remember him his laugh or his "any who". I sat behind him in my start at Apple and I have to admit, his best advice he gave me was to learn to say "NO". That was his answer to some of the funniest moments.

My deepest thoughts and sympathies go out to Colin's family. Work is a lot quieter without him.

Be well my friend. Until we meet again... you will be missed dearly. I just hope you are up there giving those surfing lessons to anyone who needs it!

Chris Cameron

Chris Cameron - May 14, 2014 at 04:08 PM

SS

“ Colin used to put a huge smile on my face when we would pass each other in the hallway at work. I will miss talking hockey with him. You will truly be missed Colin! My deepest sympathies go out to the Colin's family.

Work won't be the same without him!!

Sean Shreve - May 14, 2014 at 12:59 PM

RC

“ Colin was a very beautiful person his laugh always gave me a very simple joy. My condolences.

Ricardo Castro - May 14, 2014 at 12:59 PM

MA

“ Machalea lit a candle in memory of Colin Joseph Drewick

machalea - May 14, 2014 at 12:37 PM

“ So sorry for your loss.

Tracey Huston - May 14, 2014 at 11:55 AM

AL

“ I have known you since 2008 here at work you were always kind and that unique laugh will be missed. God protect and guide your children .

Ali - May 14, 2014 at 11:00 AM

KB

“ My deepest sympathies to Colin's family. I worked with Colin at apple and he was the nicest guy. Always a huge smile on his face, always a hello to all he met. It won't be the same around there without him. Much too early.

Kris Bergesen - May 14, 2014 at 01:31 AM

DM

“ To George and Kathy,
There are no words to say that will lessen the grief that you are going through. I will never say I know how you feel because losing your only child is a hell I can't imagine. Your son was always kind to me and he gave us two beautiful grandchildren that we all love so much. Everytime you look upon their faces you will see him living through his children.

I have learned through all of the losses in my life that hanging on to happy times lessens my pain and has after many years let me smile again. Tears are healing and talking about your precious son keeps him alive forever. Share your joy, laughter, tears and memories because he wouldn't want us to grieve forever. He laughed alot and he loved to make others laugh. I will forever see his silly smile and feel his sweet hugs. Our family will be praying for all of you that God will comfort you as only he can do.

My whole family sends our love and hugs. You are two wonderful people and are loved by many.

Love,

Donna Mallory and family

Donna Mallory - May 14, 2014 at 12:54 AM

KR

“ I'll never forget his big smile because I'll have Kyle to remind me... Or his big heart which shines through Cheyenne. I'll miss his laugh, I'll miss him. I love you, uncle Colin.

krystal - May 14, 2014 at 12:44 AM

“ Wendy Larsen lit a candle in memory of Colin Joseph Drewick

Wendy Larsen - May 14, 2014 at 12:21 AM

TP

You will be missed your laugh, smile. Our prays are with all those who are left here missing their son, father, friend.

Theresa & Ralph Pearson - May 14, 2014 at 01:04 AM

SK

“ I knew Colin from work at Apple, and we shared part of our lives together through stories. When I was a smoker, Colin would be someone that I would chat with at work. I remember his stories of being 'the man of the house', and from what I recall, the only guy in a household of women. We would laugh about those struggles and naturally poke fun!

On a frequent basis, Colin and I would say, 'Hello' to each other. Usually, this was just a simple nod and acknowledgement or, "Hey, how you doing?" It is something that I will miss and remember about the cool, kind, and potentially crazy, Colin Drewick.

Shaun Kitka - May 13, 2014 at 11:23 PM

JJ

“ I remember my first day of going to a big High School Independence, I had a skirt on and it had rained the first day I wanted to cut through the grass cause I didn't want to use the stairs and I slipped down a very muddy hill, this was the first time I ever met Colin he actually helped me up, didn't laugh asked me if I was okay and then I walked off I felt so embarrassed that day but then he invited me to hang out in his group. I was a school girl I am sure most everyone knew me as being a school girl. Colin was big flirt while I was in school and I remember what a great kisser he was. We graduated the same year 1987 and went on our separate ways, then facebook was invented. All along through the years having kids Colin was my missing link and I got a hold of him. I went over to the bowling alley on his birthday we had dinner hugged and then I moved to Oregon. I still kept in contact with him. I know my story is corny but I had to share it. I love you Colin and will miss you, you made a big impression in my life and I will never forget you.

Julie Ann Johnson (Milgrim)

julie johnson - May 13, 2014 at 09:46 PM

T(

“ I'll always remember the happy times we shared. You will always be in my heart. Glad we were finally able to talk again.

Terri Johnson (Wesling) - May 13, 2014 at 09:20 PM

Marcella
Cisneros

“ There are so many memories I have. You were not just my best friends boyfriend/husband and then ex husband. You were a part of me growing up.

Marcella Cisneros - May 13, 2014 at 08:55 PM

Chris
Wenner

“ I remember when it was my 17 th birthday colin and my mom instead of throughing me a party invited the surrounding neighbors and had a party for themselves everyone getting drunk even my siblings i was in the room with my ex and as i comeout of my room coling says " want a beer my almost an adult " he was always full of smart remarks and quick witted comments that where historical i will miss you jaba the drunk

Chris Wenner - May 13, 2014 at 07:35 PM

MM

I couldn't believe when I heard the news yesterday, especially because I went looking for him earlier in the day and didn't find him by his desk. I'll miss him giving me a hard time about some guy attacking me at the airport in Hong Kong a few years back because he was one of the people I told here at work and it became a running theme every time he'd see me by the hallways since I don;t see him at work much anymore. I'll miss his stories about Kyle's golf game, not to mention his infectious laugh. God Speed Colin!

Mike Mwangi - May 14, 2014 at 01:04 PM