“ David was 15 years younger than me. I called him my baby brother. He grew up to be tall and slender, and the age of the bell bottoms, long hair, white belts and shoes he was very impressive. He loved the Monkeys, racing his motorcycle (he had a large collection of trophies to show for it too) and despite a sometimes lousy childhood, he was happy and loved to laugh. There was happiness in his voice and it made me feel good to talk to him. I will always think of David as a kind, caring, gentle man. His passing has left a void in my heart and I will love him forever. He was my brother.
