

Isom C. Thompson, Jr

March 15, 1935 - June 10, 2016

At the age of 81, passed away June 10, 2016

He was retired from the US Navy. He was also a avid fisherman and hunter.

He is survived by his wife Paula Thompson, along with children Barbara Burt, Paul Chapman, Pete Chapman, John Chapman, Bill Chapman, Eddie Isip, Jerry Thompson, David Thompson. Also survived by sisters Mary Thompson and Revella Moffett, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be held Wed. June 22, from 3-5pm at Holycross Memorial.

A graveside service will be held Thur, June 23 at 1p at the Sacramento Valley National Cemetery, Dixon, CA.

Cemetery Details

Sacramento Valley National Veterans Cemetery

Dixon, CA

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 22. 3:00 PM - 5:00 PM (PT)

Holycross Memorial Services
486 Bridge Street
Yuba City, CA 95991

Graveside Service

JUN 23. 1:00 PM (PT)

Sacramento Valley National Veterans Cemetery
Dixon, CA

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Ted and Barb Burt purchased the Sentiments of Serenity Spray for the family of Isom C. Thompson, Jr.

Ted and Barb Burt - June 18, 2016 at 01:25 PM

CG

“ Christina Gonzalez lit a candle in memory of Isom C. Thompson, Jr

Christina gonzalez - June 15, 2016 at 09:55 PM

CG

“ He was a stern but loving grandpa who loved his wife unconditionally he liked fishing hunting pheasants and always had his special recliner with his saltine crackers with creamy jiff peanut butter he will never be forgotten i love you grandpa and will miss you dearly

Christina gonzalez - June 15, 2016 at 09:53 PM

PE

I had many good times hunting and fishing with uncle Clinton and my dad. I bet they will be telling each other fish stories again.

Patty Edgar - June 18, 2016 at 10:56 AM