

Jean Garn Nye

March 27, 1934 - November 9, 2025

Jean Garn Nye peacefully passed away Sunday, November 9th, 2025 at the age of 91. She was born in Fielding, Utah and married Fredrick L. Nye in 1952. They moved from Utah in 1955 where Fred took a job at the Boeing Co. She and her family resided in Issaquah since 1966.

Jean is survived by her 5 children and their spouses:

Wes and Debbie Nye, Rod and Kim Nye, Valerie and Craig Jackson, Brad and Kristin Nye, and Jeff and Shirley Nye. Along with 17 grandchildren, 48 great grandchildren and counting!

Jean was devoted to her faith, family, and friends, and made life long memories while serving others. She retired from Safeway as a checker but home and family were her most important focus.

Jean served in her church wherever she was needed including as a Seattle Temple worker, church librarian, young women advisor, primary teacher and in the women's Relief Society. Jean and her late husband Fred Nye also served two missions for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints - one in Puerto Rico and the second in Curaçao, Venezuela.

Jean loved her family beyond all else and held fast to family gatherings and traditions. Everyone expected to meet at her home to make gingerbread houses in December, eat homemade cinnamon rolls or enjoy a holiday dinner.

Jean spent the last 4 years of her life being cared for in Plumas Lake, CA by her granddaughter Stacey and her family. She loved having an active young family surrounding her, great grandchildren reading to her and snuggling with their dog.

Services for Jean Nye will be on Saturday, November 22, 2025 at 11:00 at “ Jean was always so sweet to us. Her grandson, Nathan, is our son-in-law, and while visiting them she was often part of the activities. We appreciated the service she gave in the temple, when she served with our brother Galen and wife Anita Skeem. Such a good and grand Lady. Prayers for all the family. 💕💕
