“ Jerry and I dated at a time right after both of our individual marriages had come to an end. Our two boys who were almost the same age, would have fun playing together.

I don't think either Jerry nor I thought of our relationship as a forever thing, but we both had a lot of fun and made good memories together. We helped each other through a difficult time. I am very sorry to learn of Jerry's early death. I wish peace to his family and loved ones. Goodbye Jerry, you were one very cool guy.
