“ Your face is one I will never forget. Your smile lit up the entire room, and your laugh was so contagious. For as long as I have been in recovery, you have been by my side as a friend, to encourage and support me. I am grateful for all the moments we shared and the time we spent. I am grateful that our last visit with each other consisted of a big hug and genuine love for one another. You were an amazing friend to myself and many others. It has been an honor to know you, and it will be an honor to help keep your memory alive. I don't know many people with as big of a heart as yours. Losing you is a great loss to us all. You are truly loved and missed by many. Rest in peace, my dear friend. Love you!

“ You as much as it drove me absolutely nuts I can't believe I'm never gonna hear " hey sucka bait how do you catch a catfish? With a hotdog" you were always there to tell me I deserved better when things got bad you were always my shoulder no matter what. You hated that I let myself get hurt but always respected our friendship enough to still be an ear. I found out you were gone on the day I needed you most you are so very missed. I love you and I will cherish the memories we shared forever I know your still with us and we'll always have that crazy summer

“ My heart is heavy, Jesse was one of my Youth Group kids years ago, he spent time at my house, he was friends with my son... All these years later, each of those kids have a special place in my heart. Jesse had a great smile and a little sparkle in his eye that kept me guessing. Lol... He thought it was great when he and I would arm wrestle. Lol... I loved this young man and will hold him in my heart always.

From the first time I met jesse he was always smiling. I am still finding it hard to grasp that when I come down from Reno and go to a,meeting he won't come bouncing into the meeting hall. RIP my friend

“ First met Jessie about 17 yrs ago when he was just a youngster. As Bob and I got to know the family we fell in love with Vickie, Jessie and Dustin. Jessie will always have a special place in my heart as one of my grandsons of my heart. The world will be a lesser place without him. I look forward to seeing him again one day in heaven. “ Jessie is my first born son and I can't imagine life without him. His brother and I will miss him so much. Jessie had such a big heart, he loved to joke around and play. He had a smile and a laugh, that would make you smile and laugh with him.

If you ever really needed him, he would do everything in his power to be there for you.

I know a lot of you loved him, and I hope you will join us on the 3 rd.

Jessie I just wish I could hug you and hold you and tell that's it will be ok. You don't have to worry or stress anymore son and Dustin and I will see you soon. I love you with all my heart.
