“ Jim was my big brother. Always the one with his own room and stuff I was told “not to touch”! Although I tried to listen, I usually got caught, but being the youngest brother, I usually got off. (Smiles). I will miss my brother dearly, but I know he will be forever taken care of by our angels Arthur Runge Sr (big Art) & Marilyn Runge...our beloved dad & mom. Your in the best hands ever Jim, no more pain, no more suffering and eternal peaceful rest with god, dad & mom. Until we see each other again!
May the peace of the lord be with you and your spirit. I love you brother.

Jim and I worked together at Hillcrest he washed the dishes and I set the tables sometimes he would help me set the tables we worked a lot of hours together Jim never had a vehicle so I was always his ride never minded taking him where he needed to my family and I we're very close to Jim . He had a really big heart. He could and would do just about anything for anybody. Jim spoke often of his daughter he loved her dearly. One of his biggest regrets was he said in his own words ...I should have faught harder for her. He was very thrilled to meet his grandson he was very proud for the brief time that he got to know him. Jim was a conspiracy theorist he was funny he argued about everything you couldn't tell him anything. When I think about him it brings a smile to my face and a tear to my eye . He's no longer in pain. He is with his mom who he loved with All his heart and sole.. Jim shared lots of childhood memories of growing up with 3 brothers. When I finally got to meat them I t felt like ide known them my whole life. When Jim first got sick he lived with us for a while and when he called Joe and told him he was sick and needed help he was there the next day. I feel blessed to have met 2 of the 3 brothers his daughter and his grandson and I hope they stay in touch. Our prayers go out to you for your loss. May God Bless you. Your friends Tammy and jerry “ Jimmy is my dad and I love him so much. I loved his laugh and how those big blue eyes would look straight into my heart and soul. He left with half my heart but is holding my pole at the greatest fishing spot heaven has to offer until I get there.

*Love you Daddy,
Your baby girl*
