“ The last time I saw Lisa was in Gridley in July I had to take my Mom to the clinic because she hadn't been feeling well and ran into her there we sat in the waiting room and talked for like 45 minutes about everything that had gone on since I had left Live Oak she was in good spirits and asked me to come over and visit her and Kali when I had a chance I told her I would sadly I never got the chance to see her again my Mother got sick a week later and ended in the hospital for 4 days i was then kept too busy for anything but I know I will see her again.

Rest In Peace Lisa.

“ Ever since the day I met her she was always so sweet, and thoughtful. She loved and cared about her Kali with her whole heart. Whether she was frustrated with her or not. I met her thru Frankie, Nicole, and Ciarra. Neighbors at the time. Then from time to time she'd call or we ran into each other. I stopped by the house to say, "hi". She often times was always in a cheerful mood. Always a pleasure to see and chat with. I cried the day I heard she had left us. Shocked, a very sweetheart of a lady and Mother, I would not enjoy conversing with again. And, Kali, what does life hold in store? Know that you can call anytime. You've friends to be there when you need them. Let God be your strength, and cry, babygirl, cry all you need to. He catches every tear. Much Respect & Prays,

“ I don't even know how to do this. How do i talk about you like you're no longer with us?! I refuse to believe that you're just gone. I went through almost my whole life with you. I went through more with you than I have with my blood relatives. You are family to me. I am having a real tough time accepting this. I'm still in a state of shock I guess. No words will EVER define my pain or love that I feel for you. And after spending majority of my life with you how am i suppose to choose a memory and share it? I have over 20 years of memories. You helped make me into who I am today. You were one of the most loving and amazing women I will ever know. This whole thing has my mind all over the place. I can't even write a memory on an obituary correctly. I love you and miss you so much Lisa. RIP ?

“ Mom, I love you so much! Thank you for giving me the best life i could have while you were here with me. Since day one it was always just you and i. There is NOT a moment in the day i do not think of you. Or our memories, our partner in crime days. Mommy, i miss you so much i cry everytime i think of you. I CAN NOT wait til i see you again. You gave me the best 20years i could ever ask for. Ive never needed you so much before. I miss you and wish you could just rock me in your arms and tell me everything is going to be okay....which in time im sure it will be just not at this moment. I LOVE YOU MOMMY AND CANT BELIEVE YOUR GONE. I DON'T WANT TO ACCEPT IT BUT I KNOW IN TIME I WILL SOME DAY. I NEED YOU SO BAD. I LOVE YOU MOMMY, AND HOPE TO SEE YOU SOONER THAN LATER. “ My dear dear friend. I don't know where to start. I meet you 16 years ago and from the very first day you became my best friend. We've seen each other through good times and bad. Let me just say that this bad time is one of the worst ever. I don't have my best friend to share it with. YOU. I'm so sorry that your life was cut short and maybe you felt you had know where to turn. I'll always miss the holidays with you and every chance we got to share with each other. My dear friend I will always be here for Kali. I love her as much as I've loved you. Please take some Pease in that. Lisa Rios I'm sad at your departure from this earth. hope you know how much a piece of my heart left when you did. I love you girl forever. RIP my dear dear FRIEND.
