

Lynn Carl Hockett

July 19, 1942 - September 23, 2016

Lynn Carl Hockett passed away quietly at Rideout Hospital following a short illness. Lynn was born on July 19, 1942 in Porterville, CA to parents, Helen G. (Berkovich) Hockett and Harry Hockett. They lived there until his younger sister, Pat, developed allergies. Doctors advised moving. They came to Yuba City, where Lynn attended Bridge St. School, Gray Ave., and Yuba City High School. He then moved to Washington where he worked as a welder, married, and had 2 children, Stephanie and John (deceased).

Lynn is survived by his loving companion/ wife (of 36 years) Barbara, two step-children Teri Rakestraw (Mark) of Nicolaus, Karen Tomasek (Mike) of Petaluma, his most beloved grandson J.D. Taylor, Lori and children. Lynn is also survived by his daughter Stephanie Dumbleton of Florida, granddaughter Angela Dumbleton Cox, her husband and son Deakin, sister Patricia Taylor, and much loved niece Lisa Makiej (Mike) of Citrus Heights, and some aunts and uncles.

Lynn was preceded in death by his parents, his son (age 6), many aunts, uncles and cousins, and several Labrador retrievers.

A Celebration of Life will be held October 7 at the Hawthorne Home on Marcum Rd., Nicolaus, from 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
