

Patricia June Potter

June 18, 1939 - October 24, 2016

Patricia June Potter (Hultz) of Yuba City passed on the evening of October 24th, 2016, after a long battle with cancer. Born on June 18th, 1939 in Crane, Missouri, she moved to California shortly after birth, settling in Feather Falls. A graduate of Oroville High School (Class of 1957), she began working as a bookkeeper at Abbey Carpet in Sacramento, where she met her husband of 57 years, Dave Potter. They eventually settled in Yuba City, where they started Dave's Floor Covering, a long time local floor covering business.

She is survived by her husband, Dave Potter; daughter Lee Ann Potter of Lancaster, New Hampshire; son Michael Potter of Yuba City; daughter Marni Potter of Marysville; and daughter Marci Powers of Brea, California; and her sister Alice Stuffle of Factoryville, Pennsylvania. She is predeceased by her parents, Alva Ray Hultz and Fay Ella Hultz, and a brother, Jimmy Hultz.

A memorial service is planned for Saturday, November 5th, 2016 at 2:00 p.m., at the family residence. Please contact the family if you plan to attend.
