“ I let too much time pass without seeing you and now it's too late. That's a regret I will carry forever. We still had so much reminiscing to do, so much catching up to do and so much laughing to do. I also needed to hug you again and tell you I love you. I need to believe that you feel what I am sending you. I love you my friend. Always have and always will.... Sheryl

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolences for your devastating loss. As you reflect on Susan's beautiful qualities, may her memories warm your hearts in the difficult days ahead. I pray that God will soothe your aching hearts with his loving promise to reunite you together again in the future Paradise. (Revelation 21:4, 5) He knows the many tears that you cry. (Acts 24:15) You're in my prayers.

“ A Poem for Mom

The moment that you died my heart was torn in two.one side filled with hesrtache,the other died with you.

I lay awake at night,when the world is fast asleep,and take a walk down memory lane,with tears upon my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy,I do it everyday,but missing you is heartache that never goes away.

I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. Untill the day arrives, that we will meet again.We love you mom
