“ Mom, I think bout you all the time and your Birthday/Day You Went Home to be with God is coming up soon and still cuts like a knife it's so Very Hard to Believe that you are not here anymore even though I still feel you in my heart it's just not the same.

Juji is in the 1st grade now you would be so proud of her mom she's a gifted lil girl, you know she still talks about you and says oh I Miss Gramma Chubb. Chunky is getting so big so fast he will be 3-this October and reminds me so much of Bubba, you and my Dad would go crazy over him. Marks kids are so big growing up so fast Noelle grows more Beautiful every day that goes by and Lil Marky is so tall and just got a job to me he's starting to look more and more like his daddy now. Our Bubba just turned 23 time sure fly's not a lil boy anymore he really struggled losing you I think all the boys did (they all Loved their Gramma so much). Just so many experiences where I think man Gramma would be so happy to see this right now. Mom I just miss you, I'll Forever Love You Julie

“ Mom,

I remember as clear as it was yesterday the first time we almost lost you. I was so small but still I remember the scared feeling I had and how helpless I felt as the police shone their lights in our face with Lani's husband Steve waking us up in the middle of the night. I remember being so small and saying Joey why are the cops here is mama dead and crying. I was so scared as he held my hand and hugged me saying don't be scared then felt a big relief as Nette came running in Lisa in her arms Trine following saying its okay you guys mama's okay just get your stuff come on we gotta go mama just got hurt get your stuff k, it's alright. Well Thank God mom was okay she had been in a very bad car accident. So we all had to be away from her for a lil while but were all eventually reunited with her... Well isn't it odd how things come to mind that we may have not have thought of in years and even though so much time has passed and I'm an adult now I still have that same scared feeling of complete helplessness and even though I know that she isn't coming home to my house this time and I know that I will Miss her everyday of my life we all will. I have comfort in knowing that she is Home a lil early Home with Our Father God and just as when we were children that cold night so long ago its reassuring knowing that ONEDAY WE WILL BE REUNITED WITH OUR MOTHER again and that makes me smile through the tears... So until then Mom I just wanna say Thank You for all the sacrifices you made for us I know it wasn't always easy raising five kids alone...

You have been a True A Blessing and I'm so Thankful having you here with me and the kids... I Love You Always and know I will see again Julie “ Grandma Chubbs, Always in our hearts. We know you are at peace and with Grandpa Tony. We love you and will always be with us. You were the best Grandma Mark could have. He loved you with all his heart and admired the strong woman you were. I'm glad I had a chance to share you with him. You were the Grandma I didn't have anymore. Thank you for being so accepting and loving to me always. Rest in paradise Grandma.

“ Where do I begin, there are so many memories so hard to choose just one... I remember being a lil girl at school and other kids saying hey your big sisters here she's pretty. I'd think what's she doing here then I look around and see my mom. I'd say that's not my sister that's My Mom and she's old! Funny because at the time I remember thinking man why can't she just look like the other mom's but she just never did. As I got a lil older I realized just how beautiful she really was and I was Always Proud that she was My Mom... My mother was there when my two children were born, when I needed a safe place to run, someone to talk to, to watch an old black & white, my mom was there... You know my mom was not only there for us her children and grandchildren she was there for almost anyone that cares to read this. All you had to do was ask and didn't even have to be related by blood if you were a friend of one of us she'd help you if she could. I can't tell you how many people we've had in our home growing up and even though we had very little she'd still offer it to them. My mother had a Very Generous Heart. I can't think of a single person we know that she didn't help in one way or another either directly or indirectly. You know one thing my mother taught us was Strength she was a Very Strong Woman that raised 5-kids on her own. I saw my mother get up with very little sleep or not a bite to eat to go out and work to try and support us. She did everything she could to teach us respect even whip our butts but she Loved us. I don't know that its completely hit me yet but I do know that my house feels empty now, I keep hearing her call me Mija and I will Forever Love and miss you Mama...
